

THE 7 BLESSINGS REPORT

November 1, 2022

The 7th Blessing has arrived before us. It is the Grand Blessing of Joy, the Path to the Creator-Self. Its grandness comes from the recognition that this aspect of Joy is beyond anything we've ever witnessed. Which means that this is Joy-that-passes-understanding. It comes from the unknowable. It sweeps the entire cosmos with its abilities and its capabilities. Are we ready for this? We must be or the High Council would not be attempting to bless us with this great force of creation that comes from this level of Joy. Which means we will have our work cut out for us in being able to allow this blessing to rest upon us.

Some of you expressed a bit of confusion regarding the six steps to receiving the 7th Blessing. Basically, this is easy because what these steps are is reawakening the previous 6 blessings in preparation for the 7th, which is the Grand Blessing of Joy. Here's a short version of the 6 previous blessings to be used in preparation for the 7th:

Blessing 1 ... that clears the space within us (allowing self-wellness)

Blessing 2 ... that clears our aura

Blessing 3 ... choice (to give and receive inner-peace)

Blessing 4 ... freedom from personal enslavement

Blessing 5 ... that clears the frequency of self-doubt (trust of self)

Blessing 6 ... communication with the Over-Spirit of Trees and/or your High Council

If you are not sure you have opened all of these 6 blessings, then you may use the Key by placing it over your heart and asking it to open any of the blessings that you may not have reopened. With the 6 blessings activated, you may then address any issues with yourself that may need replacing with the new vibrations of creation that best serve you, by allowing the Grand Blessing of Joy to shower down upon that which you are choosing to change (i.e. fear, lack, anxiety). Allow this showering of Joy to both wash away the old while at the same time allowing new creation that best serves you to replace it.

Keep in mind that this blessing is ongoing and progressive as you become more adept at aligning with the forces of the Self-Creator inherently within you. This Self-Creator is a fractal of the Creator Beings who you'll eventually be able to interact with as you progress with the Power of Joy and the Sacred Holding Place of Joy.

A Message from Zari

“At the end of the month the High Council of Light wanted me to share with you all that when you have done these connections (the Tree Over-Spirit and your High Council), you all will have created a network of Light on this planet, from heart to heart, just like the network of root systems of the trees close to heart of the Mother Earth. I have been gently reminding everyone to share, because High Council is waiting for this connection without ego but sharing with purity of heart.”

As an add-on, I would like to share a quote that Martha Carlin sent to me from a book titled An Adventure in Science.

“Of these L-fields (the electric potential of living things), those of trees can tell something that others cannot because trees do not move about, live to a great age and can be hitched up to recording instruments for long periods of time. For many years a maple tree in New Haven and an elm in Old Lyme were continuously connected to recording voltmeters — something which, obviously, cannot be done with men and women.

“These long records shows the the L-fields of trees vary not only with sunlight and darkness but also with the cycles of the moon, with magnetic storms and sunspots.

“If such extra-terrestrial forces can influence the relatively-simple L-fields of trees we would expect them to have an even greater influence on the more complex L-fields of men and women; and there is evidence that they do.

“These sturdy Connecticut trees, then, have helped to answer the question which philosophers have disputed for centuries and which many ask so anxiously today. For they have shown that life on this planet is not isolated from the Universe but a part of it — susceptible to those irresistible forces that exert their influences across the vast distance of space.”

I am sending heartfelt gratitude to all of you for this month of blessing where we have taught and supported one another in discovering the higher aspects of fractal consciousness through our interaction with the Tree People.

October 1, 2022

The 6th Blessing has come forth. However, this blessing will require significant involvement on each person's part. And it will require significant explanation on the part of Zari and myself. The 6th Blessing is the Blessing of the Trees.

Here is how this has come about, according to the High Council of Light. Many of you have expressed a desire to be able to connect to and communicate with your council like Zari does. And because enough of you have asked, this is how the blessing is to come forth. The High Council of Light wishes for Zari to explain to you how important it is to learn from the trees as teachers of Oneness. And the Council wishes for me to teach you how to talk to the trees, or more accurately stated, how to communicate with them. For I have had to go through serious training on this many years ago. It was how I learned to communicate with the otherworld later. And to this day I am deeply grateful to the Tree People for this ability. So now I must find an easier and more updated way to show you how to do this, if you haven't already learned. Those of you who have already learned, please feel free to help others in our group/tribe.

We will meet on Zoom, Tuesday evening, October 4 at the usual time. We will go longer than normal because there will be a lot to cover. We will also NOT have a segment where we share this with our planet. That's because we will be eventually learning to share with the planet and humanity through the trees.

Homework:

To prepare for Tuesday, we are asking you to go outside and find a tree that will work with you. The Key will be needed to do this, otherwise it could take forever. We've tested this out already and find that the trees love to "touch" the Key, and thus us. Which will speed things up a lot. Trees do NOT see or use time like we do. Many of them live for centuries and are in no hurry whatsoever to work with humans who seem captured by time and time schedules. To make this easier, Zari and I have found 3 types of trees that work easily with the Key, who are native to Colorado, which means you should be able to find one of these three species: cottonwood, ponderosa pine, or aspen. If you don't know the difference between a tree and a truck tire, then do your homework on Google to find out what these beauties look like. Cottonwood, aspen, and ponderosa pine all have distinct bark. Those of you outside of Colorado, consider a common type of tree in your area.

Once you've picked a tree type, then take your Key and visit some of these trees in your area. You must always greet a tree with a ritual based on oneness. The ritual I use is, "I Am, you are, We are One." You may find something more suitable. Once you have said this to the tree, with your Key in the palms of your hands, then wait to see if the tree sends out its energy to you via the Key. Trees only operate in oneness. They don't see individuals, so it is tough sometimes to get their attention. Or more accurately put, tough for us to enter their world. You will know the tree you are to work with if the tree reaches out with its energy and touches either the Key or you. It's unmistakable when a tree does this. You will either feel it or you won't. Be patient with yourself. Think how you feel when a person touches you in a loving way. Don't focus on the touch. Focus on how you feel after the touch.

Here's what I've discovered about the three tree types: cottonwood moves slowly and connects to you in the same way you feel when you are shaking someone's hand ... a friendly connection; ponderosa pine moves with a quick and light embrace with the same feeling you get from a hug or embrace; aspen encircles you around the shoulders and pulls you in to its circle with a family-like welcome. Aspens are well known for having a common root structure that can connect thousands of trees together in one system. Hope this will help you in your search. If you haven't found a tree by Tuesday night, don't worry. We will have a segment Tuesday night for those who are having difficulty.

Once you have found your tree, then visit it a time or two before Tuesday night if you are able. This will help set the scene for what will be 2 separate Zoom meetings, Tuesday night and the next Tuesday. There is a lot to cover. Many will need this time to be able to learn how to communicate with your tree, and from there to then connect and communicate with your own high council. This is a lot to learn, but I seriously feel this is a great opportunity for all of us. From trees to high councils. What could be simpler? Right?

THE SEPTEMBER BLESSING ... 5th
Sept 1 2022

We are being given the 5th Blessing: RELEASE from the MAIN FOUNDATION of YOUR SELF-DOUBT.

Here is what the High Council of Light is telling us:

"Yes, we have another Blessing that for human beings might be the best present you could dream of. How to explain this very unique and productive gift? Last month you could remember the past with love, see it with the help of our third eye and intuition, and understand the whole picture with the aid of your Higher Selves. Memories and pasts are not something to control you and limit you. But as We move through the gateway of September We are told that yes We can see your struggles, your constant challenges which can be health, love (relationships), family, income, self-recognition or other everyday life-hardships that you constantly need to keep an eye on and to make sure that these don't drown you in the intensity of the heavy vibrations that these bring into your lives.

"You know that there is no bad or good life-choices. There are just different life experiences. Unfortunately, on this planet you have an enemy, causing you to question yourselves. The enemy is doubt.

"In the past, when you were questioning your choices and your actions you chose to repeat them ... 'Did I do it better this time? Can I do it better next time?' In the past this caused you to create time-pockets (time traps). You must not do that anymore. Doubt is still controlling your inner-peace and joy.

"So, this month we are going to gift you with removal of the main foundation of your doubt."

Zari adds to this by saying, "Everyone has one main area in their lives that is like a petri dish for other doubts to grow on it."

The High Council continues, "The gift of this month is twofold. Firstly, We are going to remove one main doubt. Secondly, you will then learn to do that by yourself. For example: In relationship, someone might question 'Is this the best relationship for me to be in?' By Our removing the foundation of doubt regarding your relationships, you may now focus on how you can have wonderful relationships, instead of constantly thinking, 'Is this the right relationship for me? Should I do something more for this relationship to make it healthier, to make it better?' All you will need to do is just enjoy wonderful relationships.

Many people have health issues. For example: Someone may have diabetic issues for years and years. Food and activities may have been limited for them for years and years. Now We are going to remove that doubt that this person is constantly wondering: 'Am I going to get healthy? Is it ever going to get better? Will I ever get well?' When that doubt has been taken away, not only do you not need to think these doubts, you are going to get excited about healthier food and activities.

So the Key will have the power to help you to remove the doubt and then build up confidence creating new ways and new paths for yourself.

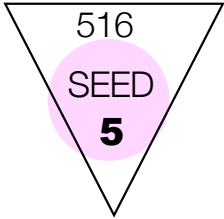

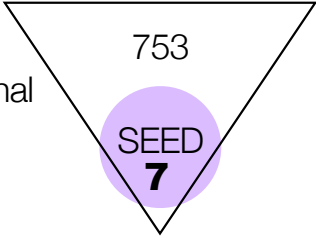

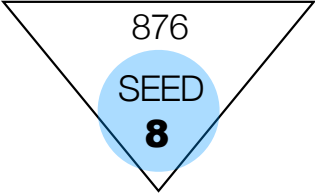

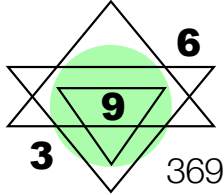

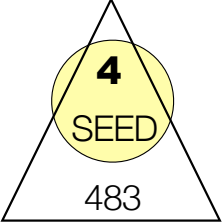

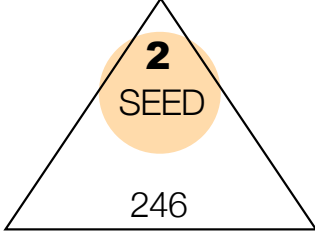

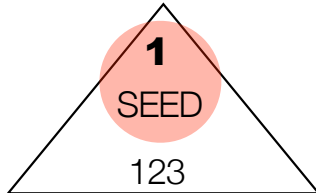

Great Blessing from the Higher Council of Light

from my heart to yours,
GW

Addendum from the High Council:

"After Tuesday Sept. 6 those who have received the 5 Blessings can hold the key in your left hand facing outward and hold their right palm facing out asking the High Council to empower you to share the five Blessings with others who may need such, by opening your heart and sharing the Blessings for as many minutes as you choose."

THE AUGUST 2022 BLESSING ... 4th

August 12, 2022

The 4th Blessing from the High Council of Light is that of "Freedom from Personal Enslavement." Little did I realize that this blessing would press me to my limits. After all, I've spent decades working on self-awareness and self-enlightenment. Not that such endeavors ever have an end. But at least one would think that at my age the end should at least be in sight. Not to be.

My challenge with this blessing is that I tend to give things away. Even to my own detriment. Certainly I can justify that in the name of "service to others." Right? My entire life has been in dedication to service to others. Or has it? Am I not the guy who has quoted the angels repeatedly with "Ask not, get not?" So why do I repeatedly give things to those who ask not? Am I really doing them a service? The angels don't think so. And here is why. Giving something of value to someone who isn't ready for it or doesn't want it turns the "gift" into a burden. Either they will discard the gift or mishandle the gift or forget the gift because in truth such gifts do become burdens. So why do I not see this?

The ritual of the 4th Blessings has really kicked my butt. Again and again. But this latest discovery of myself has been the most interesting. You would think you were watching a comedy show observing the discussions I've had with myself. "Who's on first?" the famous Abbott and Costello routine might come to mind (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2ve20PVNZ18>).

This current self-realization has led me to decide that I will quit sending out email of The 7 Blessings to those who have not asked to be a part of this group journey. Some communication, some form of energy exchange will be my benchmark of determining whether I am burdening you or not with unasked for sharings via email. In recognition of ask-not-get-not I will change my behavior and be more thoughtful toward those of you who have been with the Course of Wonders 3 but have not indicated your choice of continuing this journey with us. I, in turn will resolve to cease this form of guilt-by-not-giving-away which has not served me either. Here is hope that all will be served by this self-recognition. Can't wait to see what shows up next with this most powerful ritual we have joined together in. Truly, you are magnificent people.

from my heart to yours,
GW

THE JULY 2022 BLESSING ... 3RD

July 4, 2022

The 3rd Blessing takes a dramatic turn from our focusing on these gifts from the High Council of Light to our focusing on ourselves as fractals of consciousness connecting to other worlds as well as our own. Because of this shift, there will be 3 parts to our July 5th Tuesday night get-together: (1) Preparing ourselves in focusing on our own self-awareness as a key component in sharing this blessing with our world; (2) uniting our self-awareness with "Inner-Peace," to the point where we are the Inner-Peace that transforms chaos into order and darkness into light; and (3) repeatedly throughout this entire month we individually move into ritual where we acknowledge the Creator in us using two different options.

The metaphors we will be using in deciding which of these options each of us will choose to use, will be that of "The Tide" or that of the "The Surfer." The tide will represent those of us who choose to continually move from being connected with Source to embracing humanity with Inner-Peace throughout the month. This blessing results from our self-awareness connecting with Source where we repeatedly find ourselves blessed with "Inner-Peace." We'll discuss this more Tuesday night. The surfer, the second option, represents our self-awareness riding the action and energy that is the cresting wave of our self-awareness uniting with Inner-Peace, rising up to the moment of greatest change. We will continually ride this wave as it crashes on the shores of our planet to wash our world with a "peace that passes understanding," where what is "inner" transitions "outwardly" to all of humanity. This will be accomplished by using a ritual you will be taught involving the Key. Also done throughout this month.

The High Council also asked me to provide the Surfers with archetypal geometry that may be used with the ritual. This involves tones that match our soul-color vibration. Because of this request, I realized I had made a mistake earlier in the Course in Wonders III. Here are the corrections.

A Word From Down Under

I'd like to share excerpts with you from emails and a recording I received from Greg Menz, who is in our group. Some of you may remember him from one of the Q & A sessions. Great guy. I found his information most helpful in adding to the growing body of testimonials we as a group are putting together. Think you will enjoy this ... GW

Hi GW,

My friend Yolande is a very sensitive psychic, medium, energy worker, and kinesiologist, as well as a former accountant. She sees entities and the ebb and flow of energies and has a thriving practice helping sort out people's health problems.

Very humble and very gifted.

When she came over to my place 2 days ago I showed her both the Cirq and the Gateway Key as I was very interested to see what she would "get" from them..... I did that to keep ... Yolande's findings as contamination free as possible from a detailed explanation.

To say I was stunned by what she experienced would be an understatement, but I am never surprised these days. She is my "go to" for checking out items when I am after more information on them....

Also, over the last few days I have had some slight swelling in my feet, like a very mild oedema, and this has been generating some discomfort in my feet, and also my calf muscles have felt tight. This morning while lying in bed I decided I would use the Gateway Key to see if it could help, and help it did. I placed it on my heart chakra and just lay there. After about 5-10 minutes I could feel my energy shift and it had a real re-balancing sensation and flow attached to it. Things became "unstuck." Within an hour my feet were feeling easier and so were my calf muscles, and now some hours later I am still wearing the Key and I definitely feel easier and more balanced.

I have now given [Yolande] my spare Gateway Key and she is going to use it for herself and in her practice so I will have more information to share a little later.

My partner, who has been a chronic insomniac and until recently was using Tamazepan to help her with this, used my Gateway Key last night for the first time and found that she had a great sleep. Hopefully it is going to be the cure, or at least major help, for better sleep from now on.

All work in progress.... Once again GW, thank you so much for the gift of these amazing "tools."

Blessings
Greg

THE JUNE 2022 BLESSING ... 2ND Blessing

Because I'm a curious sort, I decided to broaden my research on the importance of auras. The bread crumbs led me to various writings on the subject of polarity. Imagine that. What surprised me even more was the loaf of bread providing the crumbs — an even bigger topic ... High Councils. So you can guess why I've skipped meals and missed naps the last couple of days. There are no coincidences.

From what I can tell from my research, High Councils make themselves noticed more than I thought. Zari isn't the only one who gets visits. So far I've identified roughly 5 different High Councils referred to by others. The more I delved into it, only 2 out of that 5 involve our tribal exploration of fractal consciousness. What that means is the other High Councils seem more oriented around outcomes and consequences of time and time travel. Interestingly, 1 of the 2 that operates within fractal consciousness presents a concept that our group has not discussed because I simply was not aware of this eyebrow raising notion: that polarity itself has built within it 2 differentiations ... in-balance and out-of-balance. Which brings us full circle to the importance of having cleared auras. Let me try and explain.

The High Council that differentiated polarities into subgroups of in-balance and out-of-balance placed great importance on either positive or negative polarity beings being in-balance. The worst case scenario from their perspective was a negative-polarity being that is out-of-balance. For these beings completely reign in chaos and destruction with no concern for the consequences. The Council wasn't too happy about positive-polarity beings that are out-of-balance either. In spite of being oriented toward the positive, these beings inadvertently can dance in chaos, affecting those around them. They also tend to be easy pickings for negative-polarity beings who want to use them for creating chaos either for themselves or others near them. One way of preventing this from happening is for a positive-polarity being to make sure their aura is clean. But how many even know of the topic of auras and cleansing them?

Thus we can more fully appreciate this gift that was given to us by Zari's High Council. And much to the credit of all of you, our willingness to share this gift has great impact and positive consequences for our planet because of our willingness to take care of ourselves and then share this gift with our world. I, personally, am deeply grateful to all of you.

from my heart to yours,
GW

THE MAY 2022 BLESSING ... 1st Blessing

The angels tell us that no blessing is too small. So when a blessing comes from a great or high source, one ought to recognize the enormity of the benediction. "Waste not, want not." And so with our last class in the Course in Wonders III such an unexpected surprise came to light.

Three aspects of the Gateway of Consciousness played a key role in our ability to connect with these higher fractals of consciousness. The three aspects were the Gateway of Essence (Paul Holden), the Gateway of Mystery (Zari Pirasteh), and the Gateway of Radiance (myself), opened on behalf of all of you. Because of Zari's abilities, her Higher Council connected with her and let her know that our efforts struck them as exceptional. Rarely does humanity collectively move to such a place of allowing the higher realms to connect with humans without expectations.

Because of our dedication, Zari's Higher Council let her know that they would impart 7 blessings to us for 7 months. The first blessing came in May. This was the blessing of self-wellness. Depending on where we choose to focus in bringing ourselves to greater wellness, this Council has provided vibrations that succor each of us in our journey through this growth. In my case, there has been a series of intense dreams regarding self-judgment, and how tough I am on myself.

With our free will, our group decided to share this gift with our planet by moving into common cause of allowing this blessing to flow through us during a session with the Gateways of Consciousness. Enough of you asked that we continue sharing these gifts with humanity during the next 7 months that arrangements have been made to repeat the double sessions of allowing these blessings to flow into ourselves and, through us, to our planet. Zari let us know that she will be told what each blessing is at the first of each month. Once she is told what the blessing is, I will then correspond with all of you, giving us an evening and time to once again come together in common cause ... most likely a Tuesday night and Thursday night (video) as with the Course in Wonders. You will receive information regarding the June blessing as soon as we know. If you wish to donate financially to support this effort, please send your donations via PayPal (or check) to gw@gwhardin.com . We have agreed on a suggested donation of $20 per month. The monthly blessings will come to you whether you participate in this common effort or not.

I will write up a blurb regarding each monthly blessing and add it to this anthology, which will be posted on my website. My deepest gratitude to all of you for your dedication and love for our planet, as we continue to do our small part for humanity.

For no blessing is too small.

From my heart to yours,
GW
