

HOW TO TURN YOUR CELL/MUSIC DEVICE INTO AN ANGELIC GRID EMITTER

Why turn your music device into a harmonic emitter? Throughout history, esoterics have known that grids lay upon the earth. The nodes, or intersecting points, have invariably been sacred sites across antiquity. The best known of these grids is called the “Earth Grid,” which is geomagnetic in nature. In the picture on the right, you see even finer detail of grid lines called “ley lines,” also geomagnetic in nature. These are the life flow of our planet not unlike the blood in our circulatory system in our bodies. If these grids or parts of the grid are blocked, it’s not unlike having a blockage or thrombosis in our blood vessels. The body is thrown out of balance and we become ill. The same is true with the Earth Grid.

There have been many ways in which the Earth Grid has been compromised over millennia to foster the wounds that have festered into making our world a prison planet. Other grids laid on top of the Earth Grid are described in the Keys of Enoch (JJ Hurtak, The Academy of Future Science, 2009), and the Voyagers II (Ashayana Deane, Granite Publishing, 2001). Also described are what are called “fences” or “shields” that are meant to create blocks of these grids. These blocks have been put in place to create what we have faced until now — a prison planet. These blocks are like erected walls that keep us from accessing our greatness, our sacredness, our remembering that we are magnificent creations of Source.

However, now you can have the capacity of co-creating a grid of your own choosing — the Angelic Grid. Unlike past grids, this grid is intended to transform inner war within ourselves, and through that transform the vibrations of war outside of us .

There are three steps to becoming a node of the Angelic Grid:

1. Download the tones as a music file to your cell phone, or computer, or iPad/Tablet. Use your resident music app or iTunes to play these tones. You may download the tones HERE ... If the browser you are using does not have a “Save” button, simply click the pause button on screen and then do a “Save As” under your “File” menu bar heading.

2. Turn your tones into scalars by attaching a scalar converter wire (1/8th inch plug) to your earphone jack on your device. A detailed description as to how to make this device can be found HERE.

If you are among the many who can't handle a pair of pliers, you may order this scalar converter wire by contacting ... bluepoppy999@msn.com It looks like something like this:

3. Attach the plug of your scalar converter to the earphone jack of your device and the alligator clip to some form of a Tesla antenna. The easiest antenna to make is called a Tesla caduceus coil. The instructions to make your own can be found by going HERE.

I recommend playing the tones daily for at least an hour. However, you may choose to play them 24/7 if you wish. That can be accomplished by getting an mp3-player, downloading the tones file, and attaching a recharging adapter that plugs into an outlet:

Go to amazon.com and type in Ruizu x02 ... recommend this mp3 player.

For the recharger plug, go to amazon.com and type in "recharger plug".

In the article "The Greatest Discovery Never Seen — Part 1" I detailed how the findings at the Australian National University on the Observer Effect now prove that the "observer" not only changes reality, the observer also has the capability of creating reality. When "two or more" are involved in a co-creative effort, that capability is greatly magnified. So the more people who help co-create the Angelic Grid, the more powerful it will operate.

In the Hundredth-Monkey phenomenon and the Maharishi Effect, we find a threshold exists that allows a small group to affect the whole, even to the point of causing mass change. Over a ten year period, the angelic realm worked with humanity in showing that when sacred geometry is involved in these effects the numbers needed to cause a trigger event can be even smaller, much smaller. This knowledge will be put to use by creating a home base that connects to the Angelic Grid with angelic sacred geometry at its source in the form of spinning merkabas.

Intent is a chief component in manifesting of co-created reality. So let us express the intent of this effort: "With knowingness that humanity can transform the vibrations of war-within, we choose to transform all vibrations of war throughout our world. With gratitude for the Oneness that we truly are, we choose harmonic resonance with one another through this Angelic Grid that we have chosen to co-create. So be it."

The scalar tones you will be playing are quite special in that they resonate with similar patterns in our bodies. Once our bodies pick up these harmonic patterns, the DNA then has the capacity to also pick up this harmony via resonance and, using its transmitting abilities, to send these harmonic patterns throughout our surroundings. When this happens, even our bodies become transmitting nodes on the Angelic Grid. We have seen evidence of this phenomenon in groups sessions using statistical testing for significant improvements in mind, body, emotions, and spirit. We have also seen that when we are in harmony with ourselves we change our surroundings to be harmonious as well. The Observer, we have seen, is all powerful in determining the kind of reality we so choose. We have an opportunity here through the Angelic Grid to co-create a reality based on harmony. And once that reality is established, the Grid will continue to support it. When we unite in harmony with our capacity to claim our oneness with one another, the vibrations of war will align with and be transformed by our vibrations of harmony.
