

A WALK ON THE WILD SIDE! INTO THE ANGELIC HALLS

with GW Hardin

For decades I have been aware of references to angelic halls. In some cases names were given to some of these halls, such as the “Halls of Enlightenment” or the “Halls of Healing.” In all my years I have never been able to discover what these halls meant or how they functioned. It has been a complete mystery in spite of all my efforts — until now.

Naturally, my first question was Why now? What took so long? Was it me? Was it them? Or was it mystical timing? After all, there is a long history of angels showing up to help humans by presenting information — and then saying or doing nothing more — leaving the humans to figure out the mystery. In this particular case, the Angelics had left a series of numbers implying that these numbers could be used to open something. That was decades ago. And for decades I have made various attempts at discovering what that something is. It was a colleague of mine, Arthur Knight Hammer, who provided the missing link. His abilities using electronics led to the first opening of one of the Halls. Eventually we discovered openings into 3 Angelic Halls using scalar technology, supported by findings from the Course in Wonders III.

Last year, a large group of individuals participated in the Course of Wonders III, in which we jointly adventured into the unknown of a freshly discovered scientific phenomenon, called “fractal consciousness.” Our joint efforts bore considerable fruit including what ended up being called the “Seven Blessings.” The group discovered 3 domains of fractal consciousness, which allowed beings from the higher realms of consciousness to bridge the pre-existing gap with humans. The 3 domains were called “Essence” (the many Faces of the Logos); “Radiance” (the Creator Beings of Light); and “Mystery” (the Unknowable of that Which-Has-No-Name).

After several experiments, a clearer picture began to develop. Why would the Angelics and/or Higher Beings use Halls in first place? They can pretty much show up wherever they choose. But most humans can't. Or won't. In our world, most humans are made to believe that they are "unworthy" or "imperfect" or "lacking" in some way or another to be able to get beyond what they perceive as their limitations. It turns out that these Halls can circumnavigate blocks and limitations (when allowed) so that common ground can be found between these Higher Beings and even the most shame-filled human.

An adjunct to this "common ground" with humans also exists — dwelling in the depths of human isolation, feelings of aloneness or abandonment. It turns out these Halls provide a foundation for meeting or finding tribe, not only with these beings but also with one another. It turns out humans have an unknown extraordinary ability.

In recent scientific discoveries regarding wormholes (the technological equivalent to these Halls), an amazing truth reveals that when humans come together or work as tribe, their abilities greatly accelerate or magnify. In quantum physics the word that describes this is "coherence." And our experiments reveal that when groups of folks open the Angelic Halls, the effects can verge on the edge of the indescribable (Mystery). We begin to see or remember the awesomeness of being human, spotlighting our intimate connection to Source, fully becoming ourselves.

I've decided to make these experiences available to the public, starting with 5 classes that will then turn into an ongoing monthly online tribal gathering. The classes will cover the following:

1. Initiation: From the 7 Blessings to wormholes to the Angelic Halls. Spend a half hour in the 3 Angelic Halls to prepare for a new journey with the Self to the Higher-Self (How to recognize liberation from one's own prison).
2. The Hall of Essence: Meeting the Guardian of Your Akashic Records and Learning About the Quantum Phenomenon of "Photorepair" (healing in time-space).

3. The Hall of Radiance: Discover the Fountain of Grace and Steer the Wheel of Karma (mending from past, present, and future).

4. The Hall of Mystery: Awareness of the Power of Joy from the Divine Feminine, and Grabbing the Key of Liberation (opening the prison door).

5. Forming Tribe: Resurrecting the Human Miracle of Oneness ... A tested format, created by a group in Boulder headed by Lindsey Hansen-Sturm and Debi Elliott, will serve as a springboard for the class to co-create a new kind of tribe.

After the 5th class, the option will be given to continue online gatherings of groups from around the world to continue using the Angelic Halls to foster a new kind of kinship with ourselves and one another.

In Course III, we learned that all humans have the ability to co-exist in space-time and time-space. We simply have only to become aware of that. Based on our experiments, it's becoming increasingly apparent to me that these Angelic Halls are glorified wormholes from time-space into space-time. Wormholes can pass information in extraordinary ways from one locality to another. The Halls mimic this in their ability to pass another kind of "information" (i.e. photorepair ... healing light) from the Higher Beings of fractal consciousness to us, and through us to our world. We have only to allow it. Which is easier said than done because sometimes this information challenges us. But that's why we have classes.

However, a mysterious factor also shows up when groups of people are involved with the Halls, as opposed to individuals. An unfathomable sense of grace, gratitude, beauty, or peace-that-passes-understanding flows in, depending on which Hall you choose to interact with. It's more than "information" being passed from Higher Beings to humans, it's as if this "information" becomes a magical oasis, a Shangri-La, made up of the combined efforts of Higher Beings and humans, that inhibit any ill-intentioned presence from spying and attacking this tribe-city of Shangri-La established by the union of Highers and humans.

I must honestly state that our experiments are only the beginning of what may be possible or what may be learned as we come together. These classes won't be focused on teaching but on teach/learning from one another. As with the Course in Wonders III, we will once again be entering a spiritual adventure side by side, not knowing what the outcome may be. May it be as exciting as last time.

To reserve yourself a spot for the 5 classes, starting Saturday, September 23, 2023, at 1:11 pm MDT, simply send an email to info@gwhardin.com letting me know if Saturdays don't work for you, along with one or more of these words:

PayPal ... (e-invoice will be sent) credit ... (I'll send an e-invoice that you may pay with credit card)

cash ... (or check — I'll send you my home address ... monthly payments OK)

scholarship ... (tell me how much you can afford and I'll put you on a waiting list)

Cost will be $180 for the 5 classes ... or $40 per class, monthly. If there is a follow-up monthly tribe meeting after the classes, payment by donation.

We will meet every other Saturday for about 2-3 hours unless the class prefers another day. I'll also offer video-repeats when you can't make a class.

Keep in mind that these courses have sold out in the past. If these classes sell out, I'll consider a video option for those registering late.

This should be a revolutionary experience for all of us. We will be supporting one another as we once again explore and co-create a new spiritual adventure.

from my heart to yours,
GW
